Headline:
Autumnal unsettled weather is expected to develop next week.

This Evening and Tonight:
Often cloudy with a chance of occasional drizzle, especially over high ground where fog will become quite dense in places. Where cloud breaks and clear spells occur further east patchy fog is likely to develop. Minimum temperature 12 deg C (54 deg F).

Sunday:
Generally cloudy start, with mist, patchy drizzle and hill fog. Through the day bright or sunny spells will develop, especially across eastern areas, where the highest temperatures will occur. Maximum temperature 21 deg C (70 deg F).

Outlook for Monday to Wednesday:
Rain clearing Monday morning, with sunshine and showers following. Tuesday will see showers or longer spells of rain, heavy at times. Long dry, fine spells on Wednesday. Turning noticeably cooler.
